Summary Report:

The institute is very keen on identifying the desires and aspirations of the new generations. It acknowledges the fact that India is the youngest nation in the world with 70 percent of its population between 18 to 35 years of age. We dedicate ourselves to enhance the professional skills and abilities of both boys and girls without any discrimination. As the institution follows co-education, it also guides the students for their long journey from "human beings to being humen" by sensitizing them on issues like gender bias, social harmony and tolerance. The equality in education is reflected through the admission ratio of girls and boys. The institution has different committees such as Anti-Ragging Committee, Women Grievance Committee, Internal Complaint Committee, which are on heels to provide quick relief to the students and to ensure the maintenance of decent and moral atmosphere within the campus. The institution has provided a spacious common room to the girls as well as boys with adequate seating facility. The college adopted 'Mentor – Mentee'(Local Guardian) system to cater the psychological and emotional needs of the students. A secure and impenetrable surroundings is furnished to shield the dignity and self-respect of students. The institute is very keen in celebrating International Women's day every year by conducting some workshop and competitions. All the campus is properly lit and surrounded through Camera surveillance in strategic locations. From classroom to corridors, practical labs, workshops, canteen, and even the main entrance of the campus are all well equipped with the CCTV cameras. CCTV surveillance is maintained in the college. It helps to keep a check on antisocial activities. Students and other employees in the college too remain cautious about the surveillance. Discipline is also maintained and it also provides a sense of security to the students and even their guardians. Students wear identity cards at all times to ensure their identity. The institution takes good care of the students in every aspect. Parent Teacher Meet (PTM) are arranged to receive feedback from the parents and acquaint them about the progress of their ward.
